
PRAYER RIPPLES • JANUARY 18, 2019

As Water Mission grows, there is a push to expand our work in many directions. It is easy to get sidetracked by shiny opportunities and lose focus on the main goal.

Through prayer, we are intentional about our actions being directed by God's will, not our own — for the work is immense, the need urgent, and the time fleeting.

Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of time, because the days are evil.

– Ephesians 5:15–17

Thank you for joining us as we petition and praise Him!

Please pray with us:

- For Jessica Mahan (Project Engineer) as she spends a month with our team in Kenya.
- For Taylor Edmonds (Project Engineer) as she travels to Kenya on Monday.
- For Bert Morrison (Senior Engineer) as he travels home from Puerto Rico today.
- For Rusty Smith (Board Member) and two friends from his church as they travel home from visiting projects in Kenya.
- For the wife of Venance (Tanzania Technician) who recently underwent heart surgery.
- For the daughter of Nestory (Tanzania Inventory Officer) who also recently underwent surgery.
- For healing for our dedicated volunteers, staff members, and their families who are suffering from health issues.
- For the nearly one million Rohingya refugees seeking asylum in Bangladesh.
- For Jacob Adoram as he spends 10 months rowing across the Pacific Ocean in support of Water Mission.
- For peace and protection for our Honduras staff as they encounter potentially violent situations in communities throughout the country.
- For our Indonesia staff as they continue relief efforts in the Sulawesi region.
- For qualified candidates to fill leadership positions in our Tanzania office.
- For the continued smooth implementation of a safe water project in Makusi, Tanzania.
- For peace throughout Tanzania, where unrest and conflict grow as changes in the government develop.
- For wisdom regarding updated government regulations for organizations operating in Tanzania, and for effective, faithful relationships with the government.
- For the successful completion of treatment systems at existing wells in Nyarugusu Refugee Camp in Tanzania this month.
- For open doors to partnerships that will stir and maintain positive change in Tanzania's water sector.
- For effective implementation of a formal staff training program which will start in our Tanzania office this month.
- For upcoming water projects in Dodoma, Tanzania.
- In thanksgiving for the ongoing Buikwe Feasibility Study and safe water projects being implemented in refugee settlements in northern Uganda.

- For the implementation of the following projects in Uganda: Kiroba, Busalamu, Kuluba, Maaji, Boroli, and Enyau.
 - In thanksgiving for a very successful borehole drilling after a long season of prayer in Chimbiya, Malawi.
 - For direction and discernment in filling open positions in our Kenya and Malawi offices.
 - For the implementation of the following projects in Kenya: Kitalale Extension, Segera, St. Caroli, and Hope for Widows.
 - For peace in the Democratic Republic of Congo, where elections were recently held.
 - For the health of our staff around the world and for safety as they travel.
 - For our internships and job openings at the Water Mission headquarters in Charleston, SC.

Thank you for faithfully supporting Water Mission through your prayers!
